

15 Alice Lane South

With a sleek coat of punched metal articulated with a tree motif, 15 Alice Lane South sits in a prominent position on the corner of Alice Lane and Sandton Drive.

Although the building's edge along Sandton Drive is accentuated by strong linear concrete forms, the inside softens to create a light, voluminous, and elegant interior. The design does not compete with but rather compliments the existing buildings in the Alice Lane Precinct, including the Norton Rose Fulbright Towers and Absa Capital.

This landmark building holds its own against its compatriots showcasing yet another sculptural marvel in the 15 Alice Lane Precinct, proudly developed by Zenprop Property Holdings and Tiber/Growthpoint Properties.
